There is much remark in diplomatic circles on the imprudence of Gladstone in writing to the Times on the situation over the signature of Scrutator. A communication in reply appears from Mr. Muller.

It is understood that Bismarck is extremely vindictive towards Gladstone in consequence of his comments on the Prussian policy which he has made or inspired in public prints.

Advices from Constantinople show that the Porte is preparing to make the most energetic resistance to Russian pretensions.

Russia's Intentions

BRUSSELS, Nov. 20.—It is thought here that the aspect of the Russian question is more pacific. The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Independance Belge announces that an imposing Russian iron clad fleet will soon appear in the Dardanelles. The vessels will be bought in the United States with the money due for Russia's northern possessions.

TOURS, Nov. 21.—Bourbaki goes to Nevers to take command of the 15th army corps. He has reported here.

Napoleon has written to the members of the Provisional Government urging a continued resistance to any proposition for the cession of French Territory.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—A Versailles dispatch announces three Prussian armies under the Duke of Mecklenburg, Gen. Von Der Tann and Prince Frederick Charles, have effected a junction and the whole force are now acting on the offensive against General De Paladines.

The army of the Loire is supposed to be retreating behind Orleans.

The Prussian army is now moving southward and General Monteuffel, who was ordered to operate against the northern line of fortified cities, has returned and is now marching west to join in the attack on the army of the Loire.

It is rumored that Gen. Von der Tann has been removed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—A correspondent in a letter regarding the war and causes which led to it speaks in reference to Bismarck's counsels which Prussia has declined and attributes this to the reason that peace was not made immediately after Sedan, but the King and Princes were absolutely bent on taking Paris.

Earl Russell approves Granville's firm and unanswerable dispatch, urging more authority if necessary. He considers the emergency exists when a Minister of a great power assumes the right to abrogate a treaty binding seven chief States of Europe.

The Times correspondent telegraphs from Berlin, November 1st, that Russia is endeavoring to prove to the great powers that there is no foundation for the rumor that she has bought or intends buying American iron clads for the Black Sea.

Bombardment of Thionville is in active progress. To-day eighteen shots per minute of cannonading are distinctly heard.

Attitude of Russia Again

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Heavy rains delay telegraphing. A special Berlin telegram to the Times says Russia seeks to prove that the story of her buying an American fleet for the Black Sea squadron is untrue. Her language is pacific and Russia is expected to sustain a peaceful solution on the Black Sea question. Lord Russell dined with the Crown Prince Sunday. He urges that this is an emergency requiring the Ministers to call out and embody militia.

The claim was rejected by the Land Commissioners and the District Court for various reasons, but the decision of the Court below is reversed by this court and the case remanded with directions to enter a decree confirming the claim. A Nashville dispatch says Senator Brownlow's health has been steadily improving since his return from Washington, and he is now regarded in a better condition than at any time during the last five years.

A special correspondent of the Chicago Tribune says that the coal taken from a mine located half way between San Francisco and Omaha, and approached by the Pacific Railroad, produces 10,000 feet of gas to the ton, being 1,000 more than has been obtained from the Pittsburg coal.

A melancholy scene was witnessed at the railroad depot in Oshkosh, Wisconsin, the other evening. A young man who had left the city four days previously on his wedding tour had returned with the dead body of his bride and was assisting to remove it from the train to the hearse.

Statements now preparing in the office of the Fifth Auditor of the Treasury, when completed, will show the cost of assessing and collecting the Internal Revenue in every district of the United States. It appears that the rate of expenses in Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis and other Western cities for collecting revenue is only half that incurred in New York, Philadelphia, New Orleans and other large cities in the North and South.

James Gamble of San Francisco, Superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph in California, has been sued by the Great Western Telegraph Company for damages of $50,000 for circulating malicious and libellous pamphlets against the Great Western Company. The suit is brought in the United States Court at Chicago. Josiah Snow and S. Reeve have also sued said Gamble for libel and for circulating anonymous pamphlets against their private characters, each laying damages at $10,000. Some sixty other suits will be commenced against Western Union employees for circulating the various pamphlets over the Western country.

POLITICAL NOTES

Prominent Republican politicians are urging on the President the advisability of a determined policy on the Alabama claims question, now that England is startled with the prospect of another war.

A Washington special says the rumor that the President's visit to Philadelphia was in regard to a proposed change in the Cabinet by substituting a Pennsylvania man for Creswell has no foundation.

From a late Washington report we take this: A variety of speculations are going on regarding the newspaper paragraph asserting that it is Mr. Delano's intention to make numerous changes in the Interior Department, and many of the clerks are trembling in their boots. It is now believed that the reports arose from the determination to oust all new clerks in the Census and Land Bureaus who are not Republicans of the most approved order. Commissioner Wilson will go under before the Senate is successful, and he wins under the Civil Tenure Act. Mr. Delano says himself he has no disposition to disarrange the business of his department by making changes of clerks on account of the departure from party fealty of a most flagrant kind. He intends, as heretofore, [illegible] but he is making a general change in Pension Agents throughout the country.

A Washington dispatch of the [illegible] contains this: A lively contest is waxing over the vacant Commissionership of Internal Revenue, and different sections are pressing their claims with much strength. Several Senators here appear deeply interested in the contest, but still it is impossible to give any opinion as to the result. Col. Woodford of New York and Representative Kelsey are mentioned. Allison of Iowa has many warm friends who urge his fitness, but it is thought he would accept. Douglas, the present acting Commissioner, continues to build his strength and is still pressed by Pennsylvania. It was stated yesterday by a Senator that the President had promised Senator Morton that he will appoint Col. Wm. Cumback of Indiana if that gentleman would accept. It is known that the President is anxious to recognize Cumback.

A [illegible] A Southern paper, the Memphis Avalanche, gives Brick Pomeroy, who has signally failed in journalism in New York, a parting kick:

Brick Pomeroy dies as hard as the Bourbon [illegible] National [illegible] for years the chief exponent [illegible] well understood [illegible] played [illegible] keeps himself before [illegible] by writing letters to the papers that [illegible] The other day one of [illegible] the readers of the [illegible] We have not learned the [illegible] attack but all [illegible] The Bourbon [illegible] The death of the Bourbon leadership was an improvement in the political health of the country. It shows that the passions of the war are dying out, and with them those who only appeal to the passions and prejudices. A healthy feeling of nationality is gaining North and South. The moderate liberal men of all parties are everywhere pushing the extremists to the wall, and the day is not far distant when the advocates of ultraism, North or South, will be regarded by the masses as public enemies.

CRIMES

[illegible] INSANE [illegible] HORRIBLE [illegible]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—A horrible tragedy was enacted here this morning. Marguerette [illegible] at 131 West Twenty-sixth street cut the throat of her infant child and then attempted the killing of her other two children, aged respectively seven and five years. Marguerette is the wife of a longshoreman in [illegible] circumstances. She has been taking drugs given by an abortionist to prevent nature taking its course. The drugs acted upon her brain, and while in a state of frenzy she nearly cut her baby's head off. When discovered she was sitting in a rocker humming a tune, and the baby lying upon the floor. She was arrested and made a desperate resistance to her husband and the police. She is thirty years of age and of Irish parentage.

AN INDIAN WOMAN IN ALAMEDA COUNTY AVENGES THE DEATH OF HER HUSBAND—HORRIBLE TRAGEDY.

OAKLAND, Nov. 15.—A terrible murder was committed last Saturday, 10th inst., near Centerville in this county, by an Indian woman named Anistaba. It appears that some months ago Anistaba's husband was killed by another Indian near the Alviso Rancho. The Indian who committed the murder was arrested at the time and brought before the Justice for examination, but the parties [illegible] who witnessed the murder being afraid or unwilling to testify, the defendant had to be discharged from custody. Anistaba since that time has been wandering about swearing vengeance on the whole Mexican and Indian race. On Wednesday last she seized an axe and rushing on an Indian named Juan, dashed his brains out with it. She then turned upon her own daughter, a girl ten years of age, and struck her a blow on the head with the axe. She then took the child in her arms and carried her about a mile down on the marsh near the bay shore, and after splitting the child's head open she hid the body in the grass and weeds. After this she attempted to kill herself by chopping the top of her own head with the axe. The body of the Indian Juan was found dead, and the child being missed, a search was instituted and the body found as above described. Constable Trefry, of Centerville, lodged the woman in the County Jail at San Leandro on Sunday morning, to which she was committed by the acting Justice. Since the commission of the crime she has acted as a perfectly sane person, except when she first appeared at the house near Alviso Hills. Before the arrest she acknowledged the murder and gave as her motive a desire to die herself, as she had no way of making her living. Violent deaths seem to run among these people, the last husband of this woman having been killed a few weeks ago in a drunken row by an Indian.

Another Prisoner Escapade

THE IDAHO TERRITORIAL PRISON EMPTIED—THIRTEEN PRISONERS STARTED FOR WHERE THE CROSS [illegible] BEEN—TOO LATE TO DO ANY [illegible]

[From the Boise Statesman, Nov. 17.]

On Tuesday evening, at half past six o'clock, the guard at the territorial prison at Idaho City proceeded to lock the prisoners up for the night. The keeper entered with a light [illegible] as usual to lock the doors, leaving an assistant on the outside with a revolver to guard against surprise. Immediately upon going in the candle was knocked out of his hand and extinguished, and the keeper seized by three or four prisoners and locked in a cell. During the confusion which followed the outside man rushed up to assist, but could not use his weapon through fear of hitting the keeper, everything being in total darkness. While thinking what to do he also was suddenly seized by strong arms and locked up. The guard were now secured and silenced with threats from a revolver, and the prisoners had sole possession of the institution. They made good use of their time in preparing for a journey across the country. All arrangements completed, they finally set out between seven and eight o'clock, taking with them all the arms they could find and about ten days rations, the company numbering thirteen all told. They started out in the same direction pursued by them at the outbreak of last summer. The prisoners either did not wish to stay there while everybody else was leaving, or they desired to go to Nevada during the flush of business over there. They were probably misinformed as to the time of the Nevada election, and will be too late to do any good in the campaign just ended, but as times are exceeding lively in our sister State they will not be long out of employment.

After the prisoners had been gone some time the guard got Hadley, who was wounded at the outbreak last summer, and who could not go this time, to take a knife and pick the lock and release them. The alarm was then raised and pursuit instituted. Sheriff Britten and Jeff Howell arrived here early Wednesday morning, when the former with a squad of soldiers from Fort Boise started out to find and retake them. They will probably all be taken in a day or two.

A dispatch from Washington, Nov. 15th, says: Senator Wilson had a long talk with the President to-day on the general political situation and about the new party movement inaugurated by the Chicago Tribune. The President regards the future of the Republican party as very hopeful. He is not surprised at the course of the Tribune, because he has been expecting some such movement, and he thinks the influence of the Tribune is on the decline. In support of this he points to the fact that its candidate for Congress at the late election was defeated. The movement, he thinks, will not gain strength.

WEDNESDAY MORNING NOV 23 1870

An Organ and its Mendacity

It was asserted by the Herald on Saturday that the facts developed in the Cox embroglio show that the President has taken some of the ten million dollars of stock into which the McGarrahan claim has been divided that he was therefore most especially urgent that the McGarrahan claim should be recognized and that the resignation of Secretary Cox grew out of that officer's refusal to be a party at the bidding of the President to assist in this fraudulent and corrupt job This story we characterized as mendacious and infamous and expressed a belief that it was fabricated entirely by the Herald On Tuesday that paper returned to the subject 'The Herald it says, as a universal rule speaks by the book, and when its contemporaries attempt to arraign it for misstatement of facts such attempts uniformly recoil on themselves These be boastful words On reading them we had some curiosity to see what the Herald could bring forward on a plea of substantiating the infamous charges it had coined We examined closely First, it had an extract from an article from the San Francisco Bulletin, which states very properly and truly that the McGarrahan claim began in fraud and that nearly every step by which it has been pushed has been tainted with fraud It is also asserted by the Bulletin that the claim has been divided up and made to represent not less than ten million dollars And this is the extent of that paper's testimony This is all that the Herald proves by the San Francisco Bulletin No allusion to the President, direct or remote, is made in the extract from the Bulletin which the Herald publishes to prove that the President has taken some of the stock in that fraudulent claim, and insists that the claim shall be recognized So much for the first witness

An extract from the Sacramento Union is next paraded The Union also denounces the McGarrahan claim as a fraud But not a word is uttered asserting or even hinting that the President has received any stock, and further, no reference, direct or indirect, is made to any stock at all! Nor is it asserted by the Union that the President urged the recognition of the claim On the contrary, however, that paper says that the President "expressly directed that no one be allowed to sign orders in favor of any of the claimants Here, then, is the testimony of the Herald's second witness Does it not begin to appear that that paper, instead of speaking by the book,' is one of the most unscrupulous, untruthful and shameless organs that ever existed?

To continue with the Herald's testimony That paper next gives a Washington telegram which asserts that McGarrahan now "affects to believe that he will succeed beyond a doubt,' and that he "lays great stress on the moral effect of the President's interference to prevent Secretary Cox issuing a patent to the New Idria Mining Company' Still no assertion that the President has any stock or that he urged a recognition of the claim He only directed that the case should not be decided in favor of any of the claimants, but should be reserved for the action of Congress If McGarrahan "lays great stress on the fact that the President declined to confirm the claim to either party, but acted impartially by refusing to decide the case at all as a thing not within his province, but belonging to Congress and the Courts, it is his right to do so; but the President is not responsible for any interpretation which McGarrahan or any other person whatever may place upon his acts. Those acts speak for themselves, and the truth is, as the whole country knows, that the President utterly and pointedly refused to have anything to do with deciding the controversy between the rival claimants The published correspondence shows that. In the Herald's third item of proof there is nothing whatever to sustain any one of its infamous and utterly unfounded assertions

For its last item of proof it gives an extract from the San Francisco Examiner, a paper only less noted for unscrupulous falsification than the Herald itself. The Examiner says "Grant is evidently mixed up in the McGarrahan swindle, and the determined efforts of Secretary Cox to prevent its consummation is the real cause of his being forced to resign' Is anything given to prove or to indicate that "Grant is mixed up in the swindle?" Not one word No pretence that any such proof exists or can be furnished is offered The statement is simply the unsupported assertion of an unscrupulous partisan organ, and amounts to no more than if made by the Herald itself

Here, then, is the array of proof that the Herald brings. All who examine it will agree that it is beneath contempt. It is no proof at all, nor anything like it of any of the Herald's allegations The editor of that paper would be kicked unceremoniously out of Court with any case resting on such flimsy and unsupported statements

And now we take that paper on another turn It denounces the McGarrahan claim as a fraud and declares that it ought never to be recognized Yet the files of that paper will show that not long ago it was the champion and advocate of this fraudulent claim! Hardly a year ago it denounced Senator Williams for opposing the claim, and declared that his opposition to it resulted from his being bribed in the interest of the New Idria Mining Company, the rival claimants And what makes the matter more notable and striking is that the present editor of the Herald is the person who wrote those articles against Senator Williams and in favor of the McGarrahan claim (He wrote it McGarraghan then, till we taught him how to spell the name) Now isn't he a nice person to go back on his record in this way? Then he asserted that Senator Williams was bribed by the New Idria Company, a corrupt combination formed to cheat McGarrahan Now he asserts that President Grant is bribed by McGarrahan a corrupt speculator and jobber who is attempting to wrest from the New Idria Company their rightful property And this is the way that he makes the Herald 'speak by the book and this is the way that the attempts of its contemporaries to arraign it for misstatement of facts recoil upon themselves It is a poor Pennywhistle a paper utterly without truth honesty or consistency an organ that deems falsehood and detraction the best and most effective weapons it can use and which hesitates not for the sake of slandering an opponent to convict itself of mendacity the most complete and glaring Now let us hear of its speaking again by the book in this matter

The strangest part of the history of the present war in Europe is the disposition displayed by many portions of the French people to advocate the restoration of the ex Emperor Napoleon After the experience that [illegible] with that weak and [illegible] simple speculator we should [illegible] that the last thing that the French people would [illegible] would be his restoration to power and rule He has weakened and betrayed France and delivered her over to her enemies and so complete has been the ruin he has wrought that the most warlike nation in the world has been unable to make a [illegible] that would do credit to a fourth rate power

According to that veracious journal the [illegible] Herald [illegible] who [illegible] Election day was that the United States authorities were terribly [illegible] by the great Democratic turnout just before the election and backed squarely down! That is one way of putting it But the figures show that the "backing down was such an enforcement of the Congressional law against repeaters as reduced Hoffman's vote in the city from 112 522 in 1868 to 83 780 on this occasion In other words about 30 000 Democratic repeaters were frightened away from the polls Now who was it that backed down

During the past year a Republican administration has diminished the national debt by the sum of $119 123 775 01 Now mark the contrast Since 1863 the Democratic administration of the city of New York has increased the debt of that city by the sum of $31 423 775 71 New York City is the only place in the United States where the Democratic party has full and undisputed control Suppose it had control of the United States then what would we have a right to expect judging from its operations in New York City?

The San Francisco Chronicle of the 16th says 'The State of Nevada has elected a Democratic Governor and State officers and a Republican Legislature Honors may, therefore, be said to be easy The defeat of Trittle, Fitch and the Republican State ticket is due to the same fact to which Henry H Haight owes his election as Governor of California over George C Gorham—the distrust of the people in candidates alleged to represent certain interests antagonistic to those of the State at large"

In the Indiana Legislature the parties stand thus Senate, Republicans 26, Democrats 24, House, Republicans 47, Democrats 53 The Republicans have the Governor and one branch of the Legislature, and as the Democrats have nothing but the other branch they cannot accomplish anything Their victory is entirely barren

The Republican majority in the New Jersey Legislature is ten on joint ballot Republicans elect four of the five members of Congress The New York Tribune calls the Republican victory in New Jersey a political earthquake

A Douglas county paper thus notices the departure of a noted "citizen ' Cayuse horses may now graze in comparative safety on the hills of Umpqua For Dan Clark has gone where they have no use for ponies, where the dogs won't bite him, where his barbering is done free, and they wear striped clothes Dan was a bad egg, and his crimes "too numerous to mention" According to contract with the Circuit Court Dan will remain at Salem four years

From the Statesman We regret to learn of the death of Mrs Davenport, and daughter of R C Geer, Esq, who died day before yesterday, at her home in the Waldo Hills Her husband was slightly ill while attending the session of the Legislature, and supposed his complaint to be nothing more serious than chicken pox Mrs Davenport was taken soon after his return and her disease is said to have assumed the worst features of small pox She was a lady of active energy and great intelligence of character, who will be missed in the society where she was known, for she had many friends.

From the Salem Statesman We propose to give a daily bulletin of health while the question is one of so general interest We learn that all those who have been seriously ill are convalescent and nearly well We hear of a new case, that of a little girl who has a very slight attack of what Dr McCurdy calls chicken pox She lives neighbor to a family which has had it We are pleased to believe that very few cases exist and none of them are dangerous Our physicians were to meet last evening and have a discussion as to the identity of the prevailing disease, which if not reported to day will be in to morrow

The Roseburg Ensign has the following from Yoncalla On Christmas eve last, two men stopped over night at the house of Mr Ambrose and it is supposed carried away his gold watch worth $100 A search warrant was issued a constable dispatched, and the gents overhauled at the mill in Pass Creek But the cunning rascal who is supposed to have had the watch, while the warrant was being read slipped it down into the mud and stamped it with his foot, thus avoiding detection Last week a neighbor on going in at the gate found the watch in a ruined condition A boy named Jimmy Beckly was shot through the hand, by a Mr Senior who was hunting and mistook the boy for a wild animal The hand was badly torn, and the man was badly frightened, when he discovered his almost fatal mistake

From the Boise Statesman Capt Wm B Hunter arrived the other day from Snake river He says that camp is the best in the territory He goes back again this morning and in about a month hence will take a trip to the States

A mountain buck was killed near the [illegible] river Mission, Montana recently, the horns of which weighed 183 pounds No other animal known to zoology carries as heavy horns as the mountain sheep, the elk comes in second on the list

During the past year forty five men have been killed six wounded, and five hundred head of cattle driven off by the Apaches in one county in Arizona In 1867 there were one hundred and thirty five white settlers in Tucson nearly all of whom have been killed off by the same tribe

A man named [illegible] known as the "Yellow stone trapper" is missing in Montana A story is afloat that he was killed by the Crow Indians in revenge for having killed one of their tribe two or three years ago A Montana paper presumes it never will be positively known what Indians are guilty of the murder, the crime now having been charged against four distinct tribes —the Sioux, Nez Perces Crows and Blackfeet

Women at the Case

[illegible]

From the San Francisco [illegible]

On the 1th of September, Miss Mary Green, a graduate of an Ohio printing office, was admitted to full membership in the Columbia Typographical Union No 101 of Washington City Miss Green had recently [illegible] place in the Government Printing Office The circumstance is not notable as a novelty [illegible] had [illegible] precedent and set an example for the Columbia [illegible] the fact that this influential and [illegible] conservative body should have quietly and unanimously surrendered to the innovation renders the event worthy of special note as showing the advance taken in this matter by the Unions to be real and substantial The Cleveland [illegible] justly styles the action on the part of the Union a step forward Previous to the strike among the San Francisco printers the female compositors here labored under greater disadvantages than even their harassed Eastern sisters They were regarded as interlopers by many members of the Union and could gain no foothold in the larger printing establishments The virtual disbandment of the Union released them from the ignoble position they unjustly occupied and gave them opportunity to show their skill in the art typographical Several young women accepted positions on the [illegible] a few months since, when it was impossible to secure enough male compositors to issue the paper The female compositors have proved faithful and efficient and [illegible] employed set type with remarkable rapidity and precision considering their limited experience

The intelligence and capacity of California girls is demonstrated again by the success of the Women's Co-operative Printing Union No 124 Montgomery street As originally started the office did not achieve the success anticipated by its proprietors and the first woman who attempted to superintend its affairs retired in August Miss Lizzie G Richmond next assumed control of the establishment and under her efficient management it is making excellent progress The office is complete in every respect and turns out job work which will compare favorably with specimens on exhibition at the leading offices of the city The office gives constant employment to sixteen persons ten of whom are females If any expert in the printing business is inclined to think a woman is of little value as a type setter a visit to this establishment will explode his absurd theory of the question Most of the compositors are under twenty years of age we should judge and have learned what they know of the typographical art in California There is one young lady (married) occupying a case in this office whose rapidity and correctness would excite surprise in any office in the land

The Pioneer office, owned by Mrs Pitts Stevens, also gives employment to several young women, and the typographical appearance of the journal speaks volumes for their ability It is eminently proper that females should work in the Pioneer office as it is devoted to the cause of women

Several interior newspaper offices, to their credit be it said are educating girls to the printing business and in every instance the proprietors testify to the readiness with which they learn the business Women are peculiarly adapted for the printing business and now that they are showing an interest in the typographical art, it is to be hoped that they will receive proper encouragement

MONETARY AFFAIRS IN SAN FRANCISCO —The San Francisco Bulletin of the 1th has the following

There were the usual complaints in reference to the large amounts of silver tendered in payment of bills It would seem as if some parties purchased silver at a discount for the sake of turning an honest penny by freely using the same in the discharge of their obligations Such a practice is of of course quite beyond the pale of honorable dealing but there are those in every business community who think it smart to engage in just such petty tricks When detected these parties are treated with the contempt they deserve How far the proposed issue of gold notes in this city will relieve merchants from the burden of carrying so much silver as many of them are now obliged to have on remains to be seen It is believed, however, that the new currency will largely take the place of silver, and in that respect will be generally welcomed It is stated that arrangements are being made for the organization of a Gold Note Bank at Sacramento Other leading cities on the coast will probably follow in the same wake, while there is some reason to expect the organization of a second Gold Note Bank in this city, with a small capital The increased supply of money which these institutions will furnish will have a tendency we hope, to modify the rates of interest in this State. California can never take a very prominent rank as a manufacturing State while there is such a disparity between the cost of capital here and in the Atlantic States Those two great elements of a State's prosperity agriculture and manufactures, are best fostered by moderate rates of interest Heretofore we have depended almost entirely on agriculture and mining for our wealth We must now add manufactures, which can only be done by cheap capital

PORTLAND'S FOREIGN TRADE The San Francisco Bulletin of the 1oth thus notices the foreign trade of Portland, which is now beginning to grow in importance

Two vessels were cleared at Portland yesterday for Hong Kong with full cargoes of produce It is gratifying to note these evidences of direct foreign trade Oregon merchants will do well to stimulate all efforts of the kind That State produces large quantities of grain, fruit and other crops for which there has been no accessible and remunerative market The railroads in course of construction there will not only facilitate and cheapen the movement of these crops to tide water, but also greatly increase the quantities produced California cannot be depended upon to take the surplus as we are every year becoming more independent of outside supplies Hence an enlargement of the foreign commerce of Oregon has become a necessity In this connection we are pleased to note an improvement in the tug service on the Columbia river. All efforts to facilitate the movement of ships between Portland and tide water cannot fail to be of great benefit to the foreign commerce of Oregon

THE RUSSIAN CIRCULAR A dispatch from London Nov 1oth gives the following as the text of the circular recently addressed by Russia to other Powers and which has produced so great a commotion in Europe

The Russian Government cannot allow the security of Russia to depend upon an arrangement which has not stood the test of time or that the Empire should be placed in peril by a respect for engagements not observed in good faith and integrity by the other contracting powers Russia therefore says that she is no longer bound by the treaty of 1856 so far as her rights and sovereignty in the Black Sea are concerned [illegible] with the declaration of the abrogation of the treaty [illegible] consents that the Sultan shall enjoy equal rights in that sea The circular states that the Emperor of Russia maintains in good faith the general principles of that treaty and holds himself in readiness to come to an understanding with the other powers of Europe upon a new and equitable arrangement calculated to insure the European equilibrium and establish the balance of power upon a more secure and harmonious basis

Great is the circumlocution office whether it be in London or Washington Here is a little illustration of the How not to do It way which pervades that institution in our well beloved land A board of army officers after a session of [illegible] months spent in examining the different [illegible] of [illegible] finally recommended [illegible] General [illegible] Chief of [illegible] examined the report and disapproved the result General Sherman next examined and approved it the Secretary of War next took it up and disapproved it and so the [illegible] expensive four months investigations have [illegible] and the department is all in a muddle

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA—COAST OF CALIFORNIA Light House at Point Reyes California

Notice is hereby given that a REVOLVING (scintillating) WHITE LIGHT of the first order of the system of Fresnel will be exhibited for the first time on the evening of December 1st, 1870 and on every evening thereafter from sunset to sunrise from the tower recently erected on Point Reyes California The intervals between the flashes are five seconds each

The tower is 33 feet 4½ inches in height from the base to the focal plane built of iron painted white and is situated on the steep slope of the bluff point, about 300 yards from its extremity The dome of the lantern is painted red the other parts of it white

The light is elevated 296 feet above the mean level of the sea illuminating an arc of 360 degrees of the horizon and it should be seen in ordinary states of the atmosphere from the deck of a vessel 15 feet above the water at the distance of 23½ nautical miles

The keeper's dwelling is a two story wooden building painted white with green blinds, and is placed at the [illegible] of the steep slope 210 feet higher than the base of the tower

The geographical position of the Light House as shown by the United States Coast Survey Chart is lat 37 deg 59 mins 31 sec North long 123 deg 00 mins 18 sec west from Greenwich The magnetic variation 16 deg 05 mins east.

A tangent to the shore in an easterly direction bears [illegible] and this line limits the visibility in that direction The angle of visibility over the water is 285 degs

The following are the magnetic bearings from the tower [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] We take pleasure in bringing these facts to the notice of whomsoever may read our paper, because we know that in helping Clarke county to an access [illegible] population we thereby assist to multiply the natural aids to the growth and prosperity of our own city

IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS —The mystery which has so long shrouded the robberies perpetrated in our midst last summer, over which our citizens were so properly excited and which so effectually baffled the officers of justice is about to be removed

Wilson and Schultz were known to be identified with those crimes and by the public were supposed to be the sole proprietors of the highway robbery and murderous assault on our townsman John Holton but to the police it has long been known that they were only two of a band systematically organized for such nefarious purposes and who actually took part in the assault and robbery referred to

A cunning and expert hand has been on the trail of those of the band who have not already been detected and his labor has been crowned with success Yesterday an indictment was found by the Grand Jury now in session, against Joseph Hackney and John Foster, charging them as principals in said highway robbery, &c They were arraigned and allowed until this morning to plead We are informed that the case has, in police parlance, been well worked up and that the evidence is complete

The name of the individual who has done this good but difficult work is at present withheld from the public but as soon as the ends of justice will allow it should be made known, so that he may receive at least, their thanks Honor to whom honor is due

THE RAILROAD FERRY —The ordinance of the City Council granting the use of F and G streets for ferry slip and steamship wharf, was referred at the last meeting to the Councilmen for the 1st or North Portland Ward It is understood that both the Councilmen are in favor of granting the right, and [illegible] no reason to believe that there will be any opposition whatever to the passage of the ordinance At East Portland, the matter of a similar grant of streets, and water front, was before the Board of Trustees Monday evening and the following resolution was adopted

WHEREAS George W Weidler has this day presented and filed his petition with the Clerk of the Board of trustees praying that the following streets in this city may be vacated, presenting therewith the written consent thereto of all the persons owning property adjacent thereto, to wit All of Willamette street from the west side of Elm street to the Willamette river, also all of Oregon street west of the west side of Maple street also all of Pacific street west of Laurel street, therefore,

Resolved That notice of such application and petition be given for at least thirty days by written notices thereof set up in three of the most public places of this city, which notice shall contain a description of the said streets proposed to be vacated, and the hearing of such application is hereby fixed for Monday evening, December 26th 1870, at 7 o clock P M., to which time the hearing of this application is postponed.

THE CITY CLOCK —Capt Dierdorff informs us that the city clock which the Odd Fellows purchased to go into the tower of their temple, is in readiness to set up but that there is yet wanting about $800 to put it in place and set it running He has been interviewing the councilmen in relation to aid from the city, with some prospect of obtaining favorable consideration Inasmuch as it is to be a purely public institution there seems to be a strong argument in favor of an appropriation out of the city funds for this purpose An alarm is attached which can be used exclusively by the city for the purpose of giving fire or other signals and we understand that the Odd Fellows Association is willing in consideration of the required help to rig this alarm apparatus and place it at the sole use of the city In case provision should be made for a fire look out, which is needed the tower would be a good place for it and in the event of its being located there, the alarm would be doubly useful The city could not, in any other way provide so cheaply for such a look out as by giving $800 toward putting up the city clock

AS AN [illegible] —Many marvelous stories —though true—have been told of the vegetable productions of Oregon Now comes our correspondent from McMinnville Yamhill county, and tells us of a squash that was kept for three years The recital is to the effect that one day last week J A Rodgers brought from his farm two miles south of the village a squash of the Hubbard variety grown in the summer of 1867 which he presented to Major Bean who had it baked. The vegetable was small weighing only nine pounds being only ninety ten inches in diameter The [illegible] was in an excellent state of preservation and [illegible] seeds full and sound The flavor of this old vegetable was equal to that of specimens of [illegible] growth In the fall of 6[illegible] Mr Rodgers stored his squashes in a bin on wheat. He [illegible] he had used all thus stored and the next year [illegible] the bin with wheat and thus remained [illegible] This circumstance lead [illegible]

DOWN RIVER NEWS

We are indebted to a gentleman who arrived last evening from Astoria for the following particulars of a most brutal and probably fatal assault upon an old man at Astoria Monday night The soldiers at Fort Stevens had just been paid off and given a day's leave of absence which some of them improved to come up to the town and get drunk Two soldiers of ... Artillery got very drunk ... and created a great uproar during the evening About 10 o'clock they wandered into the street and in their drunken ramblings met an old man of about 60 years of ... a carpenter well known to As... One of them a Spaniard named Rodriguez who without the least provocation knocked the old man down and the other whose name is Nolan jumped upon him seized him by the throat and taking a large knife from his pocket deliberately drew its edge across the old man's throat cutting a horrible gash him at from ear to ear severing an artery and laying the windpipe bare Both Rodriguez and Nolan were subsequently captured about daylight after a desperate resistance and they are now in jail at Astoria The bloody affair created the intensest excitement The old man Harrington was barely alive when the steamer left yesterday morning but it was believed that he could not possibly live more than a few hours

AMUSEMENTS.

ORO FINO THEATER —The splendid nautical drama of "The Lonely Man of the Ocean" was produced last night with new and appropriate scenery and mechanical effects and in a remarkable effective manner The piece abounds with what the stage people call active business the situations are often startling and again frequently of the most ludicrous and laughable character and the tableaux are striking and beautiful The scenery showing the main deck of the Sea Nymph was so true to life as to call out a hearty round of applause as the curtain rose upon it and the audience demanded a second view of the tableau at the close of the battle scene with the pirates of the Eagle Mrs Bates played the part of Becky Bowles charmingly and with Ellerton was excessively laughable throughout Mr Bates made the scene exceedingly impressive where the deck of Captain Bashford's vessel was strewn with dead men himself the only living being on the ship—the lonely man of the ocean—all the rest having been stricken with the plague Mr Vinson as Jack Jolly was as perfect a representative sailor as could be desired He got up a splendid dying scene on the plague ship The other parts were rendered in the main creditably and the play went off very much to the satisfaction of the entire audience It will be repeated to night with the same effective cast and with everything rendered more perfect, if possible than last night

GLORIOUS VICTORY!
THAT ACHIEVED BY CASSIN'S
XXX WILD GRAPE ROOT BITTERS
Over all competitors ...

The Parting.

Sadly from my host I parted,
Stiff he was, but genial hearted;
And a tear unbidden started
As I lingeringly delayed,
There the mother stood beside us
Prim as ever, and decorous,
But her eye a meaning bore us
Kinder than her tongue conveyed.

Round the supper room, the glowing
Logs a fitful light were throwing;
While the night breeze, hoarsely blowing,
Murmured through the circling trees
"Friends, adieu! I must oppose you,
Ill repaid the debt he owes you,
If your guest should now expose you
Unto draughts so rude as these

Cruel Laura seemed delighted
At my leaving. "Ill requited
Love!" I thought, and yet she lighted
Me, departing, to the door.
Suddenly—of no use saying
How—the breeze a frolic playing,
Blew the light out—and delaying
Grew more pleasant than before.

Dank and cold the midnight drizzle,
"One adieu!" I hear the whistle!"
Something seemed to strive and wrestle,
And we tore ourselves apart —
What took place, I have an inkling,
For my ear was smartly tinkling;
And another soul seemed mingling,
Lip conducted through my heart.
—Miles O'Reilly

A WOLF STORY THAT NEEDED PROOF.

An old man, not living a thousand miles from Washington, delights in nothing so much as telling anecdotes of his pioneer life, to the people in the town where he resides, and though his stories are not always strictly true, he tells them with such an air of truth that his hearers find it hard to question his veracity.

On one occasion, when he had gathered a little audience about him, on a hotel-stoop, he was more than usually spirited in his descriptions of hunting scenes, probably for the benefit of a stranger present, who manifested no surprise whatever at anything he heard, though he listened attentively.

The story-teller, whose name is Brown, glanced at him several times, a little uneasily, but he could not gather from the expression of his face anything to encourage him to proceed. Not willing, however, to give him up as a stupid fellow, he made another attempt, and related that he had at one time killed six wolves with one rifle shot, from the window of a log cabin in the woods, and that he had the six skulls at home to prove it.

"I remember the place," said the stranger, now quite worked up. "Wasn't it about a mile from where Jack Peltons' farm is now?"

"Just so," said Brown.

"Exactly," said the stranger, "and I want to tell of a curious thing that happened to me in that very cabin. I was out on a hunting expedition, and somehow got separated from my company, and I stopped there over night, for it was so dark that I could not see the way to go. I barred the door and windows, and felt quite safe, though I could hear the wolves howl on the outside."

"I've heard them a hundred times," said Brown, quite interested.

"Well," continued the stranger, "I slept soundly until 3 o'clock in the morning, when I was awakened by a dozen or more wolves coming down the chimney, and, sir, do you believe me, they pulled me to pieces and ate me up in precisely two minutes—every bone of me, nothing left but my boots."

"Do you mean to say that the wolves ate you all up—" said Brown, "ate you up?"

"I do, sir, and have the boots at home to prove it."

"Well," said Brown, amid the shouts of the audience, and with a dubious, half-sold expression on his face, "all I have to say is that—that needs—proof!"

It is said that Brown has lost all relish for stories not strictly true.

An Honest Confession.

NO DANGER OF BEING CHEATED IF HE WAS A JUDGE OF OXEN.

A farmer living in Oxford county, Maine, went down to a town not a thousand miles from Portsmouth, for the purpose of purchasing a yoke of oxen, as he had been informed that there was a lot of very fine stock for sale by one of the wealthy land owners of the place. Arriving in the best farming district of the Cumberland county town, our friend met a man driving an ox team, of whom he inquired:

"Can you tell me where Mr. Wall lives."

"There is a number of Walls live around here. Which one do you wish to find?" returned the stranger, who was a stout built, keen eyed man, habited in homespun, but bearing in his general appearance unmistakable tokens of ease and comfort, so far as finances were concerned.

"I don't know what his christian name is," pursued our friend; "but he is the owner of some very fine oxen."

"Well," responded the stranger, "they all own pretty fair oxen."

"But the one I wish to find has oxen for sale."

"As for that, sir, I guess they'd any of 'em sell if they could get their price."

"But," exclaimed the Oxford countryman, "the Mr. Wall that I wish to find is quite wealthy."

"Yes; well I reckon there ain't any on 'em very bad off," said the other with a nod.

"My Mr. Wall," continued our friend hesitatingly, "has been represented to me as being a very close-fisted man, and not scrupulously honest in all his transactions."

With a curious twinkle of the eye, and a gentle pat upon the paunch of the nearest ox, he said, "To tell the truth, sir, I guess they're a close-fisted set all round, and I never heard that honesty run in the family. Isn't there something else?"

"Yes," replied the searcher for oxen desperately, "they say he has been caught in the act of robbing his own brother's chicken coop!"

The stranger bowed and smiled.

"I guess I'm the man; come with me and I'll show as fine a stock of cattle as you can find in the State; and if you know what cattle are, there's no danger of being cheated."

RED TAPE.—A French correspondent of the Evening Post states, as an illustration of French "red tape," that, when the recently formed Republican Government removed from Paris to Tours, M. Laurier, a member of the government was much surprised to find a sentinel on duty, without any apparent purpose, in one of the inner passages of the office assigned to M. Laurier. On inquiry, M. Laurier found that he and his predecessors had been posted there for twenty-three years, but neither himself nor any one else knew why. On referring to the archives of the Prefecture, it was discovered that, twenty-three years ago, the corridor was painted, and the sentinel was posted there to keep passers-by from rubbing against the paint. No order removing the sentinels had ever been issued, and, consequently, since March, 1847, a sentinel has been assigned to duty regularly at that point, and had paced up and down without so much as inquiring what utility there could possibly be in the performance.

This might seem a special imputation against French red tape, were it not surpassed by a like incident in our own history. At the death of Washington in the last month of the last century, Congress appropriated a certain sum for a watchman to guard the crypt in the Capitol in which it was expected the President would be entombed. Each succeeding Congress made up its appropriation bill from the last, with such amendments as were found necessary. No one thought of questioning the trifling item for "care of the crypt in the Capitol," and every one assumed that there was somewhere in the Capitol a something which somebody was taking some kind of care of. Each succeeding Congress, therefore, gravely made an appropriation, without knowing it, for nearly seventy years, until, at last, the urgency of the effort to cut down appropriations at the last session led to an investigation into the origin of the appropriation. Congress had the gratification of knowing that, though no watchman had been kept awake nights in guarding the tomb of Washington, somebody had drawn the pay for it regularly for seventy years.

LAND DEPARTMENT
OREGON & CALIFORNIA RAILROAD COMPANY.

SALEM, OREGON, October 22, 1870.

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT IS MADE FOR information of all concerned.

First. Congress has granted to the Company all alternate sections of the public lands designated by odd numbers within a distance of thirty miles on each side of the railroad, excepting lands to which a preemption or homestead claim had attached prior to the withdrawal by Government of the lands. Terminus with the first division of located line from East Portland to Jefferson, at 12 M. February 16, 1870. The second division of located line from Jefferson to a point six miles south of Roseburg, May, 1870, and from the last named point to the California line, 1870.

Second. Persons who have valid pre-emption or homestead claims to any tract on an odd numbered section can purchase the same from the Railroad Company at the Government price of $1 25 per acre in greenbacks, and upon very favorable terms, if they so desire, by filing an abandonment of their claim in the U. S. Land Office, blanks for which will be furnished by the Land Agent of the Company. Such purchase from the Company has these advantages over a purchase from the Government: The party can lease the land if necessary; he can sell the land or mortgage it; he is saved the payment of lawyers' or agents' fees, and expenses of witnesses to go to the Land Office to "prove up" his claim; he can get his title perfect in less time, and he can buy on credit at a low rate of interest.

Third. No sales will be made by the Company until the land is listed over to it by the United States Land Commissioner and Secretary of the Interior.

Purchasers are thus assured that the title they obtain is perfect.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco. Post Office Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian. jy6d4ptf

THE RIVERSIDE
HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION!
OF
EAST PORTLAND, OREGON,

IS NOW PREPARED TO RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS to their stock.

Application for ONE HUNDRED SHARES was made before the books were opened, and a large number of Shares have been taken.

The following extracts from the Oregonian and Bulletin will convey a good idea of the plan and workings of the Association, the location of the land, etc., etc.

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

This association of whose organization we gave an account a few days since, is now ready to dispose of shares. As it is with one exception, (the Portland Homestead Association,) the pioneer organization of that kind in this city, it may be well enough to state what are its purposes, and the manner in which it is proposed to conduct its operations. The purposes of these Homestead Associations are not at all speculative in the ordinary sense of the word. They are, what [illegible] for the profits of their investment upon the natural advance in the value of their lands, consequent upon the co-operation of many individuals—shareholders—and the advance on values of all surrounding lands by reason of the expansion of population and demand for room outside of, but still near, the city. The Riverside Homestead Association has a fraction over one hundred and twenty acres of land situated just south of Brooklyn on the east side of the river, the nearest boundary line being about one mile from the ferry landing at East Portland. The tract lies in one strip along the Willamette river, half a mile in length, and another strip along the Oregon and California railroad, half a mile in length, the two strips being connected near the middle by two rows of blocks (with a street between them), the whole forming a figure not unlike the letter H. It is divided into 74 blocks, 200 feet square (with streets running at right angles) and 80 fractional lots, along the river front. The shares number 600, worth $60 per share. It will be seen that a share thus represents nearly a lot with an undivided interest in the 80 fractional lots. The 80 fractional shares are to be sold off at the proper time for the benefit of the Association, shareholders coming in for the proceeds in proportion to the number of shares held. When all shares are taken and the Association shall determine to do it, the choice of lots and blocks will be put up at auction to the highest bidder, the proceeds of such sales, after deducting the original price of shares or lots, to be divided equally among the whole number of shares. Thus, if a person wants a particular lot or block, and is willing to pay $160 or $800 premium (more or less as the case may be) he pays it, and takes the lot or block as his individual property, the premium being divided among the whole number of shareholders. It will be seen, therefore, that everything is co-operative, and all for [illegible] tus! No man can make a dollar out of it without also making a dollar for every other equal shareholder. There is no chance for loss, unless the property, by some chance, should [illegible] far below the first actual cost. Whether this is liable to happen in the case of this particular tract of land must be judged by each for himself, but considering the steady and rapid advance on real estate in this city and neighborhood, and at East Portland and vicinity for the last year or two, it seems hardly possible for values to go back.

In the Riverside Association all proper precautions seem to have been taken to guard against monopolies of shares. No person is allowed to buy more than the number of shares [illegible] three blocks, or twenty-four lots, and votes determining the operations of the Association are restricted in the same manner. The buyers of shares may pay down $60 per share, which will exempt them from all assessments, or they may pay $15 quarterly with an assessment of $1 per share, payable with the first installment, being liable in this latter case to another (and only one other) assessment of $3 per share. Upon the payment of the shares in full, with the [illegible] as above, the holder is entitled to his [illegible] and his proportion of all the profits [illegible] from all sources. No officer of the Association [illegible] any pay for services except the Secretary, who gets $25 per month; so it will be seen that the expenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying along the river is a high plateau, nearly level, about 60 to 90 feet above the water. There is no part of the front row of blocks but commands a splendid view of Portland and the river for miles up and down stream. That part of the tract lying along the railroad is, every foot of it, of the richest loam soil and adapted to gardening purposes. A beautiful little stream of pure water runs through almost the entire length of this wing of the tract, affording the means of irrigation, and power sufficient to supply pure water to every part of the whole tract. There is not a waste lot or fractional lot in the entire tract. Under all these advantages, it would seem impossible that there should be any chance of loss to shareholders. Within a year each shareholder, if he choose, may get a perfect title to as many lots as his shares may represent, or he may continue his interest, undivided, with the Association while the organization may exist.—Oregonian.

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

We have been led to make these remarks from the fact that the subject of making homesteads on the outskirts of this city and East Portland, is being thoroughly discussed here among all classes, and one "Riverside," just south of East Portland—has already been established. The site selected is a tract of land lying a little over a mile south of the ferry landing. It is shaped like the letter H, one side of which, a half mile in length, borders on the river.

From this portion of the homestead, which is elevated but a trifle above the other prong of the H, but is yet forty or fifty feet above the river, can be had an extensive view of Portland, East Portland, the city, and the Willamette river for several miles. The land is very fertile, and is partly covered with light fir timber. A tract of land just wide enough for two rows of blocks, with an avenue between them, connects the west prong of the H (which has already been described) with that of the east. This last tract of land is in a beautiful little valley, which is now under a high state of cultivation. Through its whole length runs a trout brook, the water of which is clear as crystal. With a hydraulic ram the Association propose to have water conveyed through pipes to every portion of the homestead.—Daily B[illegible]
